World Day of Prayer Service Friday 1st March 2024 at 10.30 am

This Service is held annually all around the world, hosted (usually) by the women of different nations. This year it is our turn to arrange the service in Calne, which will therefore be in the Methodist Church.

The service is written and prepared this year by the women of Palestine. There is a list prepared at least five years in advance, of countries who have responsibility for planning. It is therefore simply coincidence that the women of Palestine have prepared this particular service, and it should have no special relevance to the present situation there. It will naturally contain reference to the every day lives of the women who have prepared it.

Please come and support us on 1st March, men as well as women: this will be an ecumenical church service not a political event and we look forward to sharing the worship with you and members of the other churches, as we share with those who have prepared it for us.

Eleanor and Ursula
